Soviet control agencies with the Soviet Zone German Government.

25X1X

1. The Soviet Control Commission (SCC) with its main offices in Karlshorst, is called by the officials of the German Soviet Zone Government a collateral government which exerts decisive influence on all government activities. An SCC liaison officer is assigned to each ministry to watch, independent of the central surveillance by the government, the execution of all given orders. It has even happened that SCC control officers gave directives to ministerial departments which only later became known to the offices of the ministers.

2. The individual control agencies of the SCC in the Soviet Zone German Government do not appear openly. The names of the liaison officers are secret and known only to the highest ministerial offices.

3. Acting Soviet control officers:

V. Sitnin, Chief of the Finance Control Section of the Soviet Control Commission, with an office in the Ministry of Finances, 5/10 Unterwasserstrasse, Berlin C 111

General Borovik, Chief of the Industry Section of the Soviet Control Commission with an office in the government building (formerly Air Ministry) Leipzigerstrasse, Berlin W 8.

4. Independent control agencies are established with the individual governments of the Laender. They are represented by liaison officers in all ministries of the governments of the Laender.

Karlshorst restricted area

8. The attached diagram shows the restricted area of Karlshorst. Private billets of high-ranking Soviet occupation personnel and Soviet offices are inside the fence. This area is off limits and admittance is permitted only on presentation of a written document with a summons to appear at an office inside the restricted area. The border on the diagram represents the fence which surrounds the entire area. The places marked with a cross are the entrance gates to the restricted area. They are guarded by soldiers. The entire area outside the fence is guarded by People's Police placed within seeing distance. The area between Zwieseler Allee and Rheinsteinstrasse is especially strictly guarded as these streets lead to open land.
